Revamp Your Laundry Room

Whether your washer and dryer are in a cramped closet or a Pinterest-worthy folding palace, these tools will make laundry day a lot less agitating.

DRYER FINDS

Don't get caught high and dry when the washer buzzes. Drop wool dryer balls into glass pantry jars or place dryer sheets (may we suggest the compostable ones from Mrs. Meyer's?) in a tissue box for quick access. And corral items on an easy-to-clean fiberglass tray. Remember to put a little trash can (not pictured) nearby for the fuzz in the lint trap! HwaGui Tissue Cover in Green, $22; amazon.com Garner Tray, $25; roomandboard.com Hold Everything Stacking Glass Canister, $50; williams-sonoma.com Eco Dryer Balls, $32 for 6; friendssheepwool.com

SUPER HOOK

Slide this nifty number over your door to get not one but six (!!!) spots for hang-dry garments. Fold it up and away between cycles. Yamazaki Smart Folding Over the Door Hook, $18; burkedecor.com

ROLLY CART

Stack supplies (detergent, stain remover, etc.!) on this skinny cart to eke extra storage out of tight nooks. Then just wheel it around. 3-Tier Rolling Storage Cart, $79; urbanoutfitters.com

HANDY HAMPER

Toss dirty clothes into the bin, and add the wooden lid when you need a surface for treating stains or folding. Also, yay for more wheels! Steele Canvas Elevated Laundry Basket with Lid, $205; food52.com
